Loch Shiel is one of the longest and narrowest lochs in Scotland, and closely resembles a Norwegian fjord. Glenfinnan is a picturesque stretch of country at the northern end of the loch, at this point being also situated Prince Charlie's monument, marking the spot where Prince Charles landed on the 19th August, 1745.

Dear Mr Brown:-
I hope you and Henry
are well, Winthrop
thinks Henry cant
be well because he dont write, I hope not. It is lovely weather for June, I hope it will continue so We are all well and all send our love.

Thanks for your letter J. W. Dickons Esq., You did not stay
long enough for me
to write back -
I will do so, when
the weather improves.
I trust you will
keep from influenza.
Take quinine
Stay in at nights & keep warm. Avoid draughts.
